NEWS & VIEWS

HAPPY ALLIANCE

Most of us have associations with other clubs, and we are pleased to learn of our many members who have close interests also with the Clovelly Surf Life Saving Club and the Clovelly Eskimo Winter Swimming Club. In a quick random count-back Ron Nicholas, handicapper for the Eskimos, and Ted Hooper, president of Clovelly SLSC, mentioned these dual members:—Ernie MacDonald, president of Clovelly Eskimo WSC, Norm Rogers, Ted Lloyd, Don Stait, Brian Page, Dr. R. F. Callaghan, Joe McGee, Frank Burns, Jack Grinham, Tom Abernethy, Bill Hyde, Tom Heavener, Bryan Mortensen, Bruce Galea, Frank Falson, and John Donohue.

There most certainly will be some omissions, and we shall be glad to acknowledge any in our next issue.

Have we any other sporting clubs to rival this aggregation?

COMING EVENTS

According to Andy Leary, his cousin Mike Leary, now showing brilliant form as Penrith Rugby League fullback, has the potential to represent Australia.

Andy's own football career was abruptly concluded at St. Joseph's when he suffered a broken leg. His wife, Colleen, says that she knows three future footballers, who if they continue their present dashing form, will incur the wrath of all front row forwards and the ire of referees as well. She names them as her sons, Andrew (6), James (4) and John (2).

CLAN LINDSAY

Bob Lindsay, wife Vera and son, Dr. Norman (Bill), have just returned from a holiday on the Gold Coast. Bob was formerly an E.S. & A. branch manager and spent a good deal of his time in Queensland, particularly in the Malaney district. He was able to renew acquaintances and recount old experiences. Bob said that Buderim was the hottest spot he visited because it had the only ginger factory in the Southern Hemisphere. On his return through Newcastle, there was a family gathering at the home of his other son, Dr. Bob, Jnr.

FULL EMPLOYMENT

Born in Newcastle, Lal Bowden, in his bookmaking business, gravitated to Sydney in 1949 and retired in 1964. He has just returned from Brisbane following the wedding of his grandson, Michael Mead. Lal stressed that Michael, who is a pharmacist, is now spending his honeymoon on a two year working holiday abroad.

BEST BALANCE SHEET

Members at the Annual Meeting loudly acclaimed Chairman, Frank Carberry's statement, that "In my 41 years experience with our Club, this is the finest Balance Sheet ever presented." Subsequent speakers eulogised the Committee on its attainment.

BLESS 'EM ALL

When the Double Bay Bowling Club visited Broken Hill, Bunny Durkin and Peter McGrath shared a room at the motel. With Bunny's large frame he experienced trouble in managing the shower. He found the best result was obtained by going down on his knees. During one performance he turned and saw the comparatively short Peter down on his knees, too — convulsed with laughter.

SPIRITS

During his sojourn in the Northern Territory—Keith Manion graphically let us know of some of his experiences at Alice Springs, Ayer's Rock, Darwin and Mt. Isa.

We liked this excerpt particularly: "We stayed overnight to see both sunset and sunrise on the Rock. It was quite cool, but we had something in the bottle to keep the cold out, and as we were the only men in the party we did not leave any temptation behind and finished the evil spirits."

EDITORIAL

In the letter boxes on the First Floor, opposite the lifts, Magazine — Box 1 is accorded the highest priority. But it is in rank only, for on our daily clearance visits during the month there was nary a note. Where are our scribes? Members can rightly expect a diffusion of Club news and views. We have been complimented on the diversity of topics now appearing, but we need your co-operation. We ask you to do more than agree — we want you to participate.

VERSATILE TOM

Tom Cox is interspersing his available time between racing and boating. His yacht is the "Chilla" (named after the late Charles Isles), whilst his main equine interest is Dame Pattie, of which both Tom and his trainer, T. J. Smith, entertain high hopes. In his younger days Tom played Rugby Union first grade with Western Suburbs and in 1932 gained NSW State selection.

NO LADDER

It can be accepted that if Arthur O'Connor is present in any gathering there is sure to be some light-hearted banter. • The Annual Meeting was not immune. We know of Arthur's diminutive stature, and, as Chairman Frank Carberry stated, size did not preclude him leaping from a 60ft platform to win the Australian Diving Championship. When he stood up to address the Chair, Arthur could scarcely be noticed, but he brought a great laugh as he said, "I can assure you, Mr. Chairman, that I am not standing in a hole."

THREE GENERATIONS

Happy gathering in the Dining Room recently included Cec Davis (who joined in 1928), Dr. Eric Davis (1942), and Brian Davis (1952). The party comprised grand-father, father and son, representing three generations.

CONGRATULATIONS AND COMMISERATIONS

At a recent Randwick meeting two horses vied for public popularity — Stevette, carrying the interests of Ken Brown, and Biarritz Star carrying those of Bill Graf. Neither member had met socially until after the race when they were formally introduced in the Club Dining Room.

Stevette proved the victor, and it became a matter of congratulations and commiserations.

MERRY MONTH OF MAY

The month of May was a lucky one for Tattersall's Bowling Club champion, Harold Hill, who was successful in winning three championship tournaments on three consecutive Sundays.

They were the Open Invitation Triples held at St. Ives, the Premier Askin Open Fours at Mona Vale, and the Final Championship Triples at City Club. Well done, Harold.

PRESENTATION

Bob Stewart, head porter and one of the Club's most efficient officers, was honoured by Committee members on his attainment of 40 years service with the Club. The presentation was in the form of a silver tea service. Congratulations, Bob, from all members.

CLUB MEMBER APPOINTED TO SUPREME COURT BENCH

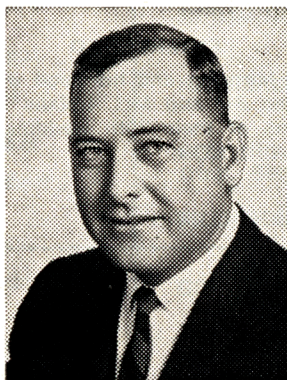

Recently the Attorney-General, Mr. McCaw, announced the appointment of Club member Paul B. Toose, CBE, QC, to the NSW Supreme Court Bench.

Paul Toose was educated at Shore and the University of Sydney. He had practised in all jurisdictions, and had been active in the affairs of the NSW Bar Association, the Law Council of Australia, and the International Commission of Jurists. Admitted to the Bar in 1941 he became a Queen's Counsel in 1960. He was a major in the A.I.F.

Our congratulations and best wishes on the appointment.

HIS WORSHIP

Regular visitor to the Club from the country is John Matthews, Mayor of Bathurst. John stood for election to the Bathurst City Council for the first time in 1965, and was elected. At the first meeting of this Council he was elected as Mayor of Bathurst and has held that position ever since.

John is a pharmacist, who has conducted his own business in Bathurst for the past 17 years. He is prominent in the social, sporting and civic life of Bathurst, and is a member of the NSW Trotting Club, Australian Jockey Club, Sydney Turf Club, and other sporting bodies.

The Club feels honoured by John's achievements.

MELBOURNE CUP CRUISE

Members, relatives and friends, are invited to join in a cruise to the Melbourne Cup on board the "Orcades."

Miss Murphy of Tattersall's Travel Service will be pleased to furnish all details and handle the bookings.

The "Orcades" will sail from Sydney at 7 p.m. on 2nd November, spend one full day in Melbourne for the Cup, and arrive back in Sydney at 8 p.m. on 6th November. Two-berth cabins are available, and fares on a one class basis cost from $80. If they so desire, passengers can return by air.

This is a grand opportunity to form a party.

VALE GERSH FIENBERG

One by one members left the Club Room on this, the busiest day of their week. It was Monday morning, and Gersh Fienberg was being buried. As they absented they had arranged for colleagues to deputise as business had to carry on, but to each a close friend had passed away.

Gone was the provocation, camaraderie and good fellowship that Gersh had engendered amongst his Club mates, his friends, and his fellow bookmakers. An inveterate gambler, there was never an event on which he fielded that Gersh did not have an interest for himself.

Even to his last hours, as his remaining strength ebbed away, and with his voice dimmed by his long illness, he listened to the Trots, motioned for pencil and paper, and wrote "$10 on Cocky Raider". He passed away without hearing the result.

Gersh will be missed by a loving family, by a wide public, and by many a charitable body that benefited by his continual philanthropic actions. In that Club section where the billiard and snooker balls make lilting music, his genial presence will be missed for many a day.

Vale, Gersh.

ROYAL ORDER

Sverre Kaaten has been presented with the insignia of a Commander of the Swedish Royal Order of Vasa, and is understood to be the first person in Australia to receive such a high honour.

The presentation was made by the Swedish Ambassador, Mr. Costa, on behalf of King Gustav of Sweden. The occasion was the annual lunch of the Swedish Chamber of Commerce, of which Sverre is president.

The Order of Vasa, for industrial service, was founded in 1772, and was conferred because of Sverre's representation of Swedish companies and interests which have prospered in Australia.

DARLING RIVER PICNICS

We are glad to record that the recently conducted Darling River Picnic Races were a great success, while the course, and all the work involved, reflected great credit on the officials.

Tattersall's members Perry Hales and Robert and Joe Matthews were the owners of the winner of the exciting Cup race. It was won by the locally trained Time To Rise.

Club member and ABC TV Sportsview compere, Kevin Chapman, officiated at the All Night Ball and also judged the wool fashions.

CREDIT FOR MERIT

Jim Comans took the opportunity at the Annual Meeting of publicly conveying, on behalf of all members, their congratulations to Jim Thomson on his appointment as secretary. His qualifications — long experience, capacity to rise to the occasion, and his availability to members at all times — were included in the qualities quite rightly attributed to our genial new secretary.

TATTERSALL'S CLUB RACE MEETINGS

Chairman Frank Carberry lucidly stated, at the Annual Meeting, the situation respecting our race meetings.

He explained how the meetings in the past had incurred a series of losses, resulting in approaches to the Australian Jockey Club for a solution which would still allow our Club to be actively identified with racing.

The discussions culminated in an arrangement whereby there will be no loss to Tattersall's Club. Any deficit would be borne by the AJC whilst any profits will be retained by this Club. There will be two annual fixtures, the Chelmsford Stakes Day in September and Tattersall's Gold Cup meeting on New Year's Day.

WELL DONE

Congratulations to Walter Lambert, on his election as deputy president of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Australia. Walter is currently president of the Associated Chambers of Commerce.

CLUBMEN HONOURED BY QUEEN

We offer our congratulations to Sir Brian Crowley and Alan Grainger for the honours conferred on them by Her Majesty, the Queen, on her recent birthday.

Sir Brian, (Knight Bachelor) has been chairman of the Australian Jockey Club since 1962. A grazier with sheep and wheat interests at Merrywinebone, near Moree, he first became a member of the AJC in 1921, and was elected to the Committee in 1944. He was chairman of the third Asian racing conference in Sydney in 1963, and represented Australia at the fourth conference in Manila, and at the seventh conference in New Zealand.

He was an AJC delegate to the Japan Racing Association conference in Tokyo earlier this year.

William Alan Grainger, CBE, is the president of the NSW Dental Board and past Federal president of the Australian Dental Association.

Alan is the Australian Regent of the International College of Dentists, and has represented his profession at conferences in various parts of the world. He is the vice president of both the Australian College of Dental Surgeons and the Asian Pacific Dental Federation, as well as being one of the counsellors of the Federation Dentaire International.

Our congratulations to both Sir Brian and Alan on their well deserved honours.

TRIPPING ABROAD

Russ Williams sailed on the "Australis" to Suva, stayed at "The Fijian" on Yanuca Island, and returned on the "Orsova".

Jim Henderson, away to Great Britain for three months on combined business and holiday arrangement which would surely take him to his firm's distillery.

Arthur McGrae returned after happy trip to England and, lucky man, spent the last week in Papeete, Tahiti.

The Committee is most anxious to maintain an accepted standard of dress at all times in the Club, this being slacks, coat and tie. Admittance to the Club will be refused if not correctly attired.

Turtle neck shirts are acceptable only when worn with evening dress. Cravats are not acceptable as correct dress for entry.

GOLF NOTES

By Phil Tresidder

Rain-swept Concord failed to discourage Tattersall's Golf Club stalwarts last month. A field of 49 members and visitors sallied forth under a variety of umbrellas, plastics and protective headware to brave the elements. The golf, unlike the cheerless weather, was definitely "hot".

John Barras, Ryde-Parramatta's stylish two-marker, set the pace with a two-over the card round of 74 which made him the most sought after orator at the evening's trophy presentations.

John returned 38 points which would have carried off the members' singles event except that he was already sweepstake winner, as well as runner-up in the four-ball event with his partner-visitor, George Furner.

Vic Kendall, the man who does all the hard work in starting the field.

So the members' singles trophy went to Jack Hansor who made the most of his 23/17 handicap to come home thoroughly soaked and with a handsome 34 points total. He won on a countback from Col Pearce (14/11). Top visitor was R. Congdon of Concord who vindicated the old adage of "horses for courses" with a slick 35 points total.

George Langford and his visitor, L. Stevenson, produced the winning four-ball card with 42 points.

"That was great golf, considering the conditions," said president, Geoff Eastment, who knew what he was talking about, because he, too, had battled the persistent rain and wind. All in all it was a fine roll-up in the most challenging conditions.

Walter Levy was welcomed back among his colleagues after another overseas trip. Another personality player was visitor Noel Bartell, well known Lakes Club secretary and former NSW amateur captain. In his distinctive plus-fours, Noel showed some of his old magic with a 32 point total.

Concord Golf Club's invitingly comfortable leather chairs, a cheerful log fire, and regular prescriptions from the bar, mellowed our members as the night wore on. One cosy four-ball, Neale Goodacre, Ian Buckle, Lloyd Crawford and Alec Thomas, were last heard, would you believe it — discussing Beethoven. Arnold Palmer didn't rate a mention!

BOWLING NOTES

21st ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The Annual general meeting of the Bowling Club was held in the Sportsman's Room of Tattersall's Club on 9th June last. President Fuz Porter extended a warm welcome to Tattersall's Chairman, Frank Carberry, and Treasurer Barney Fay, our old friend Brian O'Donnell and 42 members of our group.

Election of Officers.

It was unanimously agreed that the officers and committee be elected for the coming year. Mr. R. T. C. Storey was elected to fill a vacancy on the committee.

Obituary.

Charles Cohen, Bowling Club committee member, passed away on 3rd June. Before asking members to pay tribute the president spoke of Charlie's great interest in the Bowling section over many years, and referred to what has become a byword, even outside our club, "The Charlie Cohen Shot."

We sincerely extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Cohen, George and family.

Presentation of Trophies.

Singles Championship—Harold Hill.

Handicap Pairs—Tim Renensson and Bill West.

Chairman, Frank Carberry, congratulated Harold on his win, as did Mark Barnett in presenting the Pairs trophy to Bill and Tim.

Life Membership.

Harold Hill was unanimously elected a life member of the Bowling Club, and now joins the honoured few, namely, Gordon Booth and Harold Quinton. Harold Hill is presently our immediate past president, and has been actively associated with the club since it was formed 21 years ago. Congratulations, Harold.

Resignation.

Harry Davis, although retaining his position on the committee, has with some reluctance resigned his post as Hon. Publicity Officer, due to heavy demands on his time as vice commodore of RMYC. A vote of thanks was conveyed to Harry for his service to the club over the past two years. This vacancy has not yet been filled.

ALF COLLINS

Longest serving committeeman, Alf Collins, was for many years a well-known member of the legal profession. Over latter years other business interests have taken up his time and though he still retains his connection with his firm, he is no longer active in it on a full-time basis. Racing has always been an absorbing hobby with Alf, and he was at one time a racing journalist. He has been a member of the A.J.C. since 1920, the S.T.C. since its inception and a member of Tattersall's since 1927. A noted Turf expert, Alf has seen racing all over the world. He is also a Life Member of the Club.

CLAUDE MOORE

Claude Moore's family tradition is steeped in racing. His father founded the once well-known Moorefield course on land owned by Claude's grandfather. Claude has followed the family tradition and over the years has been on the committee of most of Sydney's racing clubs at one time or another. He is presently on the committee of the Sydney Turf Club. A well-known property-owner in the country for many years, he sold out to come to the city and build up one of the largest furniture stores in the suburbs. He disposed of this, too, in turn, and now confines his interests to racing.

ARTHUR MCCAMLEY

Arthur McCamley is well known in Sydney's commercial circles as a director of E. McCamley and Sons, manufacturers of industrial footwear. He is an enthusiastic follower of racing and a well-known owner who has had several prominent horses carry his colours. Arthur has always been a lover of sport and has supported our athletic department activities for many years. He serves on both our swimming and handball committees at the present time. A member of the Club since 1941, Arthur now commences his ninth term on our Committee.

JACK O'NEILL

The O'Neill family have been well known in the hotel field over many years. Jack's family owned several hotels on the north coast and when Jack came to Sydney from there in 1934, he took over licence of the famous Hampton Court at the Town Hall Hotel. Later, he had the King's Cross. He now has interests in several. Jack lives at Pymble and enjoys working in his garden when his professional commitments permit. A member of the Sydney Turf Club and the Australian Jockey Club, he also has a wide interest in many sports.

LES TIDMARSH

Les Tidmarsh is one of Australia's most colourful fielders. He is one of three brothers, all of whom are book-making members of our Club. Although Les is well known as a bookmaker, he has a considerable number of business interests as well, one of which is the Lion Tile Co., a family concern. Both Les and his wife are enthusiastic supporters of various charities and do a great deal of community work. Les has been a Tattersall's member for over 18 years and has been a committee member since 1958.

SWIMMING NOTES

by Sam Block

Adrian Powles took the honours in the May-June Point Score by "Powellizing" his opponents with a tally of 30 points, made up of three wins in finals and one third place.

This type of swimming takes a lot of beating, and although Charles Coppa put up a great performance in scoring 23 points, and John Ward with 21 points, they were relegated into 2nd and 3rd places.

The battle for the "Native Son" trophy is a real thriller with Arthur O'Connor leading Charles Coppa by the small margin of one point, with John Connery now taking third place from Max Sernack, who is a further three and a half points behind.

Another new member welcomed by the Club is Rod Grace on 21 secs., who will not be long in making his presence felt among the short markers.

Quite a few of the lads fell foul of the handicapper, with Adrian Powles losing two seconds, and J. Langsworth, C. Coppa and J. Keating one each.

Best winning times during the month were: N. Rogers 19.8 and 20 secs., B. Mortensen 19.9 and 20.5, P. King 20.3 and 20.4, W. Henneberry 20.5 and 20.8, and R. Hill 21.1 secs.

Noticed in the Press of "25 Years Ago Today" where Johnny Dexter was playing Rugby Union for the Navy against the RAAF. Herb Narvo was the stumbling block, but Johnny brought him down with many a hard tackle. In fact, hard tackling was a feature of the Navy's team in which J. O. Dexter stood out. Johnny kicked a goal, also a penalty goal.

The members of the Swimming Club wish to compliment the catering staff in the Pool, Cyril and Mario, for their earnest endeavours to please and satisfy the inner man. Thanks, boys.

The very sad item of the month was the passing away of Gersh Fienberg, a staunch supporter of the Swimming Club for the past 30 years. The passing of Gersh brings to a close an era which associated the names of Jack Samuels, Ned Moss, Theo Marks, Frank Aldritt, Lionel Bloom and Mannie Lyons, all supporters of our Club.

Each of them had a genial, kind and charitable disposition, and they were always ready to help. The writer had the privilege of knowing Gersh for the past 60 years, and to his wife Eva, and sons Ben and Len go the deepest sympathy of the members of the Swimming Club.

Our genial honorary secretary, Jack Dexter, has been forced through continual ill-health to reluctantly resign his chairmanship of the NSW Swimming Association. This important position has been taken over by Tattersall's Chairman, Frank Carberry, who will fill it with honour and distinction.

Jack hopes to be with us at the heats of the Club Championship to be held on Tuesday, 8th July, and the finals on Thursday, 10th July.

BILLIARDS and SNOOKER NOTES

by Bert Tonks

All Eyes on the "Bull Ring"

With our 1969 Billiards and Snooker tournaments well under way, the Club Room once again provides a wonderful setting, and is currently the centre of attraction with keenly fought contests the order of the day on every day except race days.

This year's crowds are well up to standard, nevertheless, there is still ample ringside room for more members to enjoy the entertainment and excitement that our tournament clashes invariably provide.

For instance, what more thrilling encounter could be envisaged than Norm Jacobs' defeat of scratch player Ken McDonald, thereby providing the year's greatest upset to date.

Then there was the well deserved victory of Peter Dind, a worthy representative of the younger and most welcome section of our snooker players, over former champion Hans Robertson.

There's more of this "thrill a minute" action coming up — so stop by and take a look.

The results of the first round of Billiards and Snooker matches, together with the second round draw, are shown on this page.

1969 Inter-Club Snooker Competition

Our inter-club snooker team got away to a flying start by a complete white-wash of the redoubtable Royal Automobile Club team in the opening gambit of the season at Tattersall's.

Our team, which was responsible, was made up of the following Tattersall's cueists: Rowan Hunt, Jim Wilson, Ben Gerakiteys, Warren Foster, Lee Bluett and Eugene Piekarski. Congratulations, fellows, on a good kick-off for the season.

PICK OF THE YEARLING BASKET

by Cliff Graves

Studmasters of the distant past amassed huge sums as winning owners. Sir Geo. Clifford racing in New Zealand accumulated a total of $362,516, making him the biggest winner owner in Australia's history of the Turf.

A Victorian owner-breeder, E. E. D. Clarke, cleared $301,072.

A critic of these colossal figures, who dates back a long way in his knowledge of breeding thoroughbreds for sale, said such triumphs could be achieved only by stud masters who had first choice of their youngsters to keep for their own racing purposes. After they had culled the best the others went into the sale-ring for auction.

He said those old-time breeders had a forehand knowledge of their youngsters' speed in the breeding paddocks and invariably the horses they chose were ready-made gallopers bursting to become champions.

Thus Sir Geo. Clifford won hundreds of races and most of the classics, including eight Derbies! Any average age modern breeder or owner considers himself lucky with one.

Mr. E. E. D. Clarke owned Melton Stud 20 miles from Melbourne, easily the most prolific establishment in Victoria's history where stock by the English importation, The Welkin, could all gallop like the wind.

Famous trainer Jim Scobie selected five or six yearlings each season to carry Mr. Clarke's colours.

The result — a sum of $301,072 in stake money earned for Mr. Clarke, including a Melbourne Cup winner, Trivalve. He was bred at Melton but was not by The Welkin who sired almost only sprinters.

On the other hand the Australian turf has been favoured with owners who bred solely for their own racing, never sold a yearling, and sometimes even bought other youngsters from other studs at public auction to supplement their racing string.

Such a one is current chairman of the Australian Jockey Club, Sir Brian Crowley, and his total stake-earnings, $261,482, gives him a status as one of the foremost authorities the Australian turf has known on thoroughbreds, and their potential.

Sir Brian Crowley runs a good second in the list of Australian winning owners.

He bought Flight for only 160 gns. as a yearling and she won him 24 races, and $61,254 in prize-money.

But his other big turf winners Sky-line and Sky High were his own breeding. Both won Derbies, and Sky High, probably the best horse of his time, turned out a wonderful speedster, and won 29 races and $151,110.

These included the Epsom with 9.2, a Futurity, and a Golden Slipper over distances from five furlongs to 1½ miles.

It was in fact a breeding accomplishment for Sir Brian of which he could well be proud.

Coal baron, John Brown, early in the century set up a stud to breed his own winners. He imported a horse named Sir Foote from England, and won the Futurity with him. He was the first season sire of John Brown's 1909 Derby and Melbourne Cup winner Prince Foote. Provided with mares of the richest blood that money could buy, Prince Foote established a stud of the highest standing, which made John Brown cock of the walk in turf matters for two generations.

The Hon. James White, a NSW Legislative Councillor, in a whirlwind period of eight years dominated the Australian turf last century. He won seven Derbies, nine St. Legers, two Metropolitans, and two Melbourne Cups plus a total of $244,590 when prize-money was about a tenth of its current worth.

He bred most of his own winners and never sold a yearling.

Statistics revealing Mr. E. J. Watt as Australia's most affluent winner of prize-money surprised many contemporary racegoers. He was a very quiet man, almost shy, and never boasted about his turf successes. But from 1909 until his death in 1938 he never missed a season in which his horses did not earn from $6000 to as much as $24,000.

Mr. Watt was a breeder who sold his stock, but frequently kept one or two for himself from his stud to carry his own colours.

He was also a yearling buyer in the public market in New Zealand, Victoria and New South Wales, and a number of these purchases had outstanding success on the turf, notably Mildura, who won a Newmarket and two Doncasters.

A small-time breeder of 35 years ago, Len Haley used to sell his yearlings around the 200 gns. mark. He hand-picked only one of his breed, a colt by an imported stallion called Bullhead. Named King's Head he won the 1938 Epsom.

Later he decided to breed for only his own racing purposes and 14 years ago a Randwick trainer, T. J. Smith, offered him a yearling he had purchased in New Zealand, and which nobody seemed to want. The price, 750 gns., suited Len.

The youngster he bought was Tulloch, 36 times a winner, who cleaned up $220,247 in stakes!

Manipulation of breeding markets departed long ago and no evidence of an owner-breeder for the public market keeping champions for himself has recently been apparent.

An interesting point on this subject is that we have had two millionaire buyers in recent years who have laid out more than $100,000 each in a single season, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Fox, and the Foyster family of father and sons. They have had the complete freedom of the markets in New Zealand and two Commonwealth States, but they have come up with no champions to date. It is hoped they will do so as a reward for such enterprise in the big industry represented by the sport of kings.

Mr. L. Foyster has had a taste of big success. He gave trainer Tom Smith, a long-time member of Tattersall's Club, a commission to buy an English horse. Tom brought home Speed of Sound, and in their partnership he won the $40,000 Epsom last October.

An interesting evolution in the affairs of the Foyster horses is the take-over by Mr. T. J. Smith. He will handle 20 of the current team, but the development comes when he personally commences to choose yearlings for the family.

In the past 10 years he has selected horses which each season won $200,000 or more for stable clients.

Will this magic choice put the Foysters among the important winners of the future?

HANDBALL

NOTES

By Arthur McCamley

"GOOD IDEA" COMPETITION

This event has now reached the semi-finals stage, with results of matches already finalised as follows:

Norman Rogers (+1) defeated Bob Callaghan (+18) 42-40.

Robert Lipman (Scr.) defeated Frank Burns (+15) 41-32.

Bill Yewdall (+12), who had a bye, now plays Robert Lipman to decide who will meet Norm Rogers in the final.

The match between Norm Rogers and Bob Callaghan was a thriller with the pace on right from the beginning. Bob received a start of 17 points, and Norm had to put up a brilliant effort to draw level at 40-all and then go on to win 42-40.

I thought Bob, who has been showing great form, would win this match and go on to win the final. But Norm is a determined player who never relents, and he simply wore Bob down with sheer speed and stamina. A win in this match would have given Bob a great kick. It is, however, worth commenting that in four out of his last five games Norm has had to go to advantage points to clinch victory.

Robert Lipman, our club champion, continues on his winning way by scoring a great win over Frank Burns with the scores at 41-32. Frank played really well, but Robert was invincible on the day. I doubt if I have seen Frank play better, but Robert had the answers to his very best shots, and his form is indicated by the final scores with a winning margin of nine points.

Congratulations, Robert, and commiserations to Frank. Never mind, you will have other opportunities in future events.

Last month, when reporting the Good Idea matches, I gave the result of the Robert Lipman/Rod Fisher match as an easy win for Robert by 41 points to 29. This score was incorrect. Robert did win, but only by 2 points, the scores being 41-39. Rod played really well, and was unlucky not to have won. Sorry, Rod, for giving the wrong scores.

Club Championship Results.

Michael O'Dea defeated Bruce Partridge 32-30.

Norman Rogers defeated David Morrissey 31-26.

Ralph Davies defeated Ken Glass 31-19.

The match between Michael O'Dea and Bruce Partridge was a particularly good one. This match emphasised Michael's remarkable improvement during the past three months. As a past club champion, Bruce is a very tough opponent for any handballer, and Michael must have been very pleased when the last point was played with the scores 32-30 in his favour.

Ralph Davies and Ken Glass had a grand match, with the scores favouring Ralph 31-19. However, this is no indication of an easy win. Ken fought every inch of the way, and it was only because all the breaks favoured Ralph that there was such a big margin in the scores.

GRADE MATCHES RESULTS

'A' Grade

Bill Hannan defeated John Brice, 31-29.
Bill Sellen defeated Don Stait, 35-33.

'B' Grade

John Byrne defeated Ernie MacDonald, 31-24.

'C' Grade

Ron Spencer defeated Charles Coppa, 31-29.

Peter Barnes defeated Neville Amy, 31-16.

Bruce Cox defeated Terry Forrest, 31-22.
Bruce Upcroft defeated Fred Allsop, 31-24.

In 'A' Grade, Bill Sellen and Don Stait had a hard match, the scores going to 35-33, before Bill received the referee's call of "game, set and match". This was a gruelling match with a photo finish and both men had to show plenty of stamina to see it out.

In 'B' grade only one match has been finalised and this resulted in a win for Ernie MacDonald, after a keen struggle with John Byrne, the final scores being 31-24.

In 'C' Grade they are showing great enthusiasm. The match between Ron Spencer and Charles Coppa was excellent, as the score of 31-29 will indicate. Congratulations, Ron, for a splendid win.

Bruce Cox had a good win over Terry Forrest by 31-22, which is a pretty close score and shows how keenly this match was contested. It was played in true sporting style.

Bruce Upcroft and Fred Allsop also had a good match. Fred is quite a good player, and although I had not seen Bruce play previously he put up a fine display and thoroughly deserved his win.

Peter Barnes defeated Neville Amy by 31-16, a very comfortable win. Peter is quite good and can beat many of the 'B' Grade players, so Neville, it was no disgrace to be defeated by Peter.

More news next month.
